

Embracing diversity, inclusion as a critical business philosophy

Our luncheon program on October 9 will outline key strategies Jones Lang LaSalle has implemented to drive diversity and inclusion throughout the organization. A 25-year veteran of the real estate industry, Elizabeth Hearle is the Market Director for Northwest, and has direct oversight of all Jones Lang LaSalle’s operations in the region, including tenant representation, agency leasing, project management, capital markets, corporate solutions and a property and facilities management portfolio of 41.3 million square feet. The firm’s Northwest region includes five corporate offices, employs 1,200 full-time employees, and was awarded one of the “Best Places to Work in the Bay Area” by the San Francisco Business Times for the last two years in a row. Ms. Hearle has been named to San Francisco Business Times and Globe Street “Women of Influence” for two years.
